Car Restraint Hire for Premature and Low Birth Weight Babies

September 2024

Safe travel in the car for your smallest passenger

Our premature and low birth weight babies are often discharged from hospital when they are still very small and they generally don't fit well in standard car seats and carriers. It is important that they are restrained appropriately in the car for safe travel.

To help our low birth weight and premature babies travel safely in the car, Kidsafe SA has suitable carriers available for short or long term hire. Currently there are only a few carriers on the Australian market that are specifically tested and approved for low birth weight babies. You can hire one from Kidsafe SA to use for the first few months of your babies life until they are big enough to be safely restrained in a standard car seat.

Correct harness fitment is important!

Carrier suitable for low birth weight babies

Correct Fitment

- Harness positioned level with shoulders
- Harness close to hips
- Crotch buckle supporting pelvis
- Firm harness fitment

Standard Infant Restraint

Incorrect Fitment

- Shoulder harness too high
- Harness not close to hips
- Crotch buckle too high
- Loose harness fitment

Kidsafe SA provides hire, sales, and fitment of carriers suitable for low birth weight babies
