

This checklist should be used to confirm if a support requested by a client will be considered 'Reasonable and Necessary' by the NDIA – refer to NDIS Act (2013) Section 34 (a) – (f)

- Describe the Support being considered.
- Work through each question in relation to the Support being considered and answer
- Where all questions have been answered Yes, the Support can be considered 'Reasonable and Necessary' and may be funded via the NDIA.
- Where any question has been answered No, NDIA is not responsible?

Client Name:			Date:
Support Considered:
Goals and aspirations Does the support assist the participant to pursue the goals, objectives and aspirations included in their plan statement of goals and aspirations?	Yes ☐	No ☐
Social and economic participation Does the support assist the participant to undertake activities, to facilitate the participant's social and economic participation?	Yes ☐	No ☐
Value for money (benefits & alternatives) Does the support represent value for money in that the costs of the support are reasonable, relative to both the benefits achieved and the cost of alternative support?	Yes ☐	No ☐
Expectations of families, carers and informal networks Does the funding or provision of the support take account of what is reasonable to expect families, carers, informal networks to provide?	Yes ☐	No ☐
Most appropriate funding body Is the support most appropriately funded or provided through the NDIS, and not more appropriately funded or provided through other systems of service delivery or supports offered by a person, agency or body, or systems of service delivery or support services offered?	Yes ☐	No ☐		